

CA DOGGR: On November 30th, Dr. Steven Bohlen, State Oil and Gas Supervisor and head of the Division of Oil, Gas and Geothermal Resources (DOGGR), tendered his resignation. Ken Harris, Executive Director of the Central Coast Regional Water Quality Control Board has been appointed to replace Dr. Bohlen and will start at the end of the month. (Albright, 2-3971)

CA UIC: In response to public comments received from the first public comment period (from August 20-September 21), DOGGR revised the Arroyo Grande Aquifer Exemption proposal and is soliciting public comments until December 16th. DOGGR expects to submit the finale package to EPA for review and approval once new public comments are addressed and incorporated in to the package. (Albright, 2-3971)
